

Rationale for Selection

Recipient & Title

PROGRAM Bronze	For employee innovation and empowerment to launch a sustainable bike program, enabling her business to walk-the-talk or ride-the-pride, promoting a bike culture throughout the community, a BRONZE medal goes to...	Environmental Design Group - Bike Share Program
PROGRAM Bronze	For advancing bicycling as a means of commuting and fostering a bike culture, a BRONZE medal goes to...	Bike Cleveland - for Bike to Work Day
PROGRAM Bronze	For a great sharing of bike equipment, engagement of teachers and a range of bike programming for young students, a BRONZE medal goes to...	Cleveland Heights Bike Fleet

PROGRAM Silver	For fostering bicycle culture, confidence and community among a population stereotypically not considered cyclists, meaning women of color, a SILVER medal goes to...	Black Girls Do Bike - Akron Chapter
PROGRAM Silver	For an on-the-ground event which touts our industrial history, heritage and aquatic assets, a SILVER medal goes to...	Share the River - for the Burning River Ramble

PROGRAM Gold	For a bicycle education program with broad application and strong partnerships serving lesser-advantaged youth, the GOLD medal goes to ...	Cleveland Safe Routes to School Bike/Ped PE Education
---------------------------------------	---	--

POP-UP Bronze	For creating a comprehensive master plan which integrates art into the trail experience and the trail into the art experience, the BRONZE medal goes to...	Slavic Village Development Corp. and LAND Studio for the Morgana Run Trail Public Art Plan
--------------------------	--	--

POP-UP Silver	For an artistic approach to gauging the communities reaction for closing a street to be part of a park, the SILVER medal goes to...	City of Lakewood for Rosewood Avenue Street Mural "Graphic Positivity"
--------------------------	---	--

POP-UP Gold	For engaging the underserved in an urban core with temporary nature programming and demonstrating enough interest and value for establishing a permanent presence, a GOLD medal goes to...	Summit Metroparks for Summit Lake Pop-Up Nature Center
------------------------	--	--

POP-UP Gold	For creating transferable events reaching hundreds of people which build community and inspire residents to envision their streets as spaces for more than just vehicular transportation, a GOLD medal goes to...	Open Streets Cleveland
------------------------	---	------------------------

PROJECT Bronze	As mountain-biking grows in popularity, For creating and engaging a local user group in the expansion and renovation of a mountain bike trail, a BRONZE medal goes to...	THORN Mountain Bike Club and Findley State Park for the THORN Mountain Bike Trail Renovation
---------------------------	--	--

PROJECT Bronze	For extending a critical link in an important commuter and recreational trail system with a creative and functional trailhead meeting point, a BRONZE medal goes to...	Shaker Heights for the Lake-to-Lakes Trail Phase 2 and Cleveland Heights for the Bike Fix-It Station, Coventry
PROJECT Bronze	For extending a critical link in an important commuter and recreational trail system in a more rural setting with unique cultural opportunities and design challenges for accomodating horse drawn buggies alongside bicycles, a BRONZE medal goes to...	Geauga Park District for the Maple Highlands Trail South
PROJECT Bronze	For rebuilding and redesigning, with state-of-the-art, ecologically sensitive engineering, a very popular step and landing system connecting people with a historically significant site, a BRONZE medal goes to...	Cleveland Metroparks and Partners for the Fort Hill Steps

PROJECTS Silver	For creating an ADA accessible, ecologically sensitive path which enables persons of all abilities to experience the beach and Lake Erie and which brings Ohio's Buckeye Trail to its Great Lake, a SILVER medal goes to...	Ohio Department of Natural Resources for Headland Dunes State Nature Preserve Boardwalk Trail
PROJECT Silver	For applying a variety of modern techniques to improve bicycle safety on a heavily traveled, urban commuter street, a SILVER medal goes to...	City of Cleveland and Partners for the Detroit Superior Bridge Protected Bikeway

PROJECT Silver	For creating a commuter and recreational trail with access to the Lake serving several urban neighborhoods, including residents of public housing, a SILVER medal goes to...	City of Cleveland and Ohio Department of Transportation for the Lakefront West Multi-Use Path
----------------------------------	---	--

PROJECT Gold	For an urban street renovation, creating a new Main Street with bike lanes and social art exhibits and art programming, connecting critical assets of Health and Education with an emphasis on engaging the underserved, a GOLD medal goes to...	The Campus District for East 22nd Streetscape & Bike Lanes AND the Bridge that Bridges program
--------------------------------	---	---

PROJECT Gold	For critical trail link in a monumental, transformative initiative, engaging hundreds of property owners and reshaping how a city engages its Great Lake, a GOLD medal goes to...	City of Euclid for the Lakefront Development Phase II
--------------------------------	--	--

2018 Overall

PLATINUM AWARD	For an outstanding initiative, so transferable in nature that it provides the means for transformative approaches to space with the potential for profound regional benefits, the 2018 Overall PLATINUM Award goes to...	Open Streets Cleveland
----------------------------------	---	-------------------------------